

Deidre Sirianni

Activator and guide to VISIONARIES, LEADERS AND IMPACT DRIVEN ENTREPRENEURS who are ready to change the world in a big way, and aren't willing to compromise when it comes to matters of the heart.

Her mission is to wake as many people up in her life to the truth of who they are and who they are meant to be.

Over the past decade of working closely with people one-on-one and in large groups she began to notice the connection between the soul and the body. Her curiosity and own personal health challenges led her down the path of studying with Shamans and learning how the soul communicates through symptoms of disease and how the body can heal itself at an accelerated rate when the message is integrated.

Deidre is the founder of Radically Aligned Life, and is an Evolutionary Coach who believes the foundation of everything comes down to living in alignment with your purpose and truth.

Her work dissolves mental, emotional and physical barriers that are pulling you out of alignment with your higher purpose and from living it fully. She supports people to reach their next level of fulfillment, joy and success through blending the metaphysical laws and tools with the practical for accelerated results.
